- Ofsted v DT [2018]

Represented a child minder before Ofsted who faced a series of allegations after an Ofsted inspection.

- BACP v EF [2017]

Represented a counselor who faced allegations of patient care failures, involved questioning of a vulnerable complainant.

- HCPC v PN [2017]

Represented a social worker who faced allegations of failing to report sexual allegations. A small proportion of allegations were found proved. The Panel found that these failures were due to a severe lack of resources and staffing issues. A caution order was imposed for 12 months.

- South Kesteven District Council v SR [2017]

Represented an individual facing breaches in relation to food safety at his restaurant.

New Park Court

- National College for Teaching & Leadership v AM [2016]
Successfully represented a teacher in front of his regulatory body. Persuaded the Panel to set aside a prohibition order, allowing the teacher to return to teaching after a 5 year period. Advised on the need of a psychiatric report after considering medical evidence.
- NMC v PJD [2016]
Successfully represented the NMC. Allegations found proved against senior nurse who physically and verbally abused an elderly care home Resident who had severe learning difficulties. The Conduct and Competence Committee found impairment and that his actions were incompatible with remaining on the Register, thus Nurse D was struck off.

Inquests

Georgina is instructed both by individual interested parties and companies/organisations in a variety of inquests.

Georgina specialises in care home and medical deaths and also has a strong interest in deaths in custody cases.

Georgina has delivered training and lectures on recent changes within Coronial law.
